Barcode: 8906051435742

Product Description

10ml Goloka pure aroma oil in the fragrance Peruvian Palo Santo. Each bottle of oil comes in a beautifully designed cardboard pouch making it a great gift idea. Palo Santo is a rare and sacred wood originating from South America. The aroma is sweet and Palo Santo sticks are often used for smudging and purification rituals to dispel negative energy. This fragrance is designed to inspire creativity and bring love and good fortune. Please note that Goloka fragrance oils are not perfume oils and should not be applied to the skin. This oil should be used in an oil burner. It's recommended to add water to the burner before adding 5 drops of the fragrance oil. Once the tealight is lit and placed underneath the liquid will begin to warm and the fragrance will start to rise. Goloka fragrance oils are made in India. Suitable for use with our wholesale oil burners and used for refreshing potpourri. Product not tested on animals.
