Product Description

10ml Goloka pure aroma oil in the fragrance California White Sage. Each bottle of oil comes in a beautifully designed cardboard pouch making it a great gift idea. Please note this item is not an essential oil and should not be applied to skin. Made from the silver-white leaves of the Salvia Apiana plant that grows on the coast of California, white sage is a sacred herb and has been used by shamans and indigenous people for generations for purification ceremonies. This fragrance is designed to give a positive boost to closed spaces and neutralise smoke and other odors. This oil should be used in an oil burner. It's recommended to add water to the burner before adding 5 drops of the fragrance oil. Once the tea-light is lit and placed underneath the liquid will begin to warm and the fragrance will start to rise. Goloka fragrance oils are made in India. Suitable for use with our wholesale oil burners and used for refresh-
